

Tales in History

Lynn Rymarz ... storyteller, author

Lilla Cabot Perry: All about Her Life as an Artist, and Her friend, Claude Monet

Join historical storyteller Lynn Rymarz as she portrays Lilla Cabot Perry, an American artist. Step back in time to hear how she grew up in a prominent Boston family, and discovered her talent sketching at the age of eleven. It wasn't until she was married with children that this passion led her to pursue art lessons. She dedicated herself to learning her craft, helping her to discover her own unique style of painting portraits and scenes around her. When she and her family moved to Giverny, France, Lilla became good friends with Claude Monet, who became a mentor to her work. A move to Japan with her family influenced her paintings which earned her recognition. She also became known for her published books in poetry. She used her passion in words and her love of painting to share the beauty of the world with others.

About Lynn Rymarz

Lynn Rymarz has been performing historical portrayals of women since 2005. As a children's author and storyteller, she enjoys sharing little-known stories of women.

Wearing vintage clothing, Lynn has portrayed women such as Martha Washington, Julia Child, Zelda Fitzgerald, Eleanor Roosevelt, and many more.

Find descriptions of these portrayals on Lynn's website.

Follow Tales in History on Facebook.