

Wallis Simpson A Duchess with Style

Join storyteller Lynn Rymarz as she steps back in time and shares the story of American-born Wallis Simpson, the woman for whom Edward VIII abdicated the throne of England. “I could not be King without her,” he said.

Hear the true story of one of the twentieth century’s most famous, yet least understood, women. This presentation reveals how Simpson lived what is called “the great love story of our time.” Discover the details of their courtship, their marriage, the royal family’s falling-out, and how Simpson made a happy, loving home for the King of England.

Interviews, letters and photos will be shared, along with Wallis Simpson’s tips on entertaining and fashion.

People Have Said ...

“Lynn’s portrayal of the Duchess of Windsor fascinated her audience at The Garlands ... Lynn’s story brought out the Duchess of Windsor’s unique style ... I know that Wallis is pleased her true story is being told.”

— Erna Bringe, former editor of the Windsor Society Newsletter and Researcher for Greg King’s book The Duchess of Windsor: The Uncommon Life of Wallis Simpson
